COUNCIL PUTS NEW COMMITTEE ON THE I.N.U. POLE FIGHT

BRINTON, SCHMIDT AND KELLER WILL TRY THEIR HANDS AT SETTLING DISPUTE.

INVESTIGATE 'WIRE PILE' NAMES

Offer of I. N. U. to Branch off Onto Jackson at Fourth Does Not Receive Warm Welcome.

The city commissioners, all present, passed the semi-monthly bills, discussed the I. N. U. pole row, touched on the proposition to make the "wire pile" into a city park and transacted minor business.

General Manager Marshall of the Utilities company was present and offered to run the much discussed high tension pole line which is to go to Amboy, on College from River street to Fourth street, then west to Jackson and south again on Jackson to Ninth and then back onto College avenue.

This proposition did not exactly meet with unanimous approval and in fact, Commissioner Gannon, it could be seen, was distinctly opposed to such a compromise.

The suggestion that the company get permission from the railroad companies to use their switch track right-of-way from their power plant to the city limits met with general approval in all quarters except the Utilities company, for Mr. Marshall intimated that it would be very difficult for them to procure the permission from the railroad company without a great deal of red tape and delay.

Mr. Marshall declared that it would be asking too much to expect the company to run its poles up Lincoln avenue for the cost would be considerably more, and as there was no danger connected with the high tension line, there would be no advantage to the city. The commissioners believe that the Lincoln avenue route is best because it is through a thinly settled part of the city, but Mayor Brinton pointed out that it is the plans of the Brown Shoe

BRUSWICKS TRIMMED STARS IN CLOSE GAME

SUNDAY'S CITY LEAGUE CONTEST WAS CLEANEST AND FASTEST OF SEASON.

LIGHTNER APPLIES WHITEWASH

Holds Whitebread's Men to Four Hits—Paddock Deserved Better Fate for Good Work.

In the fastest and most cleanly played game of the season, the Brunswick Sunday afternoon took a little firmer grip on first place in the City League by defeating the Stars, 2 to 0. Time, 1:35. Lightner for the Brunswick held the hard hitting Stars to four hits, while Paddock, who worked for Whitebread's team, displayed great stuff. He was nicked for seven bingles, but several of them were of the scratch order. However, both of the Brunswick's runs were the result of hitting, good base running or hurry-up work, and fielding errors did not enter into the scoring.

Stars Attempt Rally.

The Stars fought gamely against the clever pitching they were up against, and but for a questionable decision in the last of the ninth by Umpire Beach might have made things more interesting for the winners. In that session Schrock, first man up, laced a long one down the left field foul line. To the stands and several of the players the ball looked fair, but Beach yelled "foul" and the opportunity was gone, for Schrock then fouled out to Duffy. Emmert and Keenan were also easy outs, and the Stars' last opportunity was gone. The story of the game.

First Inning.

Brunswick's Curran safe on N. Whitebread's boot. Woody fanned and Duffy did likewise. Curran caught trying to steal. Left to Emmert. No runs, no hits, one error.

Stars—Larkins scratched a hit between third and short and Schrock sacrificed him to second, Lightner throwing the batter out at first. man out, third to first. No runs, one hit, no errors.

EIGENMAN BROUGHT BACK TO FREEPORT

FORMER DIXON ARTIFICIAL ICE MAN LOSES HIS FIGHT AGAINST EXTRADITION.

MAKES APPEAL TO GOVERNOR

Chief Executive of Iowa, However, Turns a Deaf Ear to His Pleadings and Freeport Sheriff Takes Him.

Freeport Journal-Standard: Acting State's Attorney Louis Reinhold and Sheriff Robert J. Stewart were successful at Des Moines yesterday in inducing Gov. George A. Clark of Iowa to sign requisition papers by which the local officers were able to bring William P. Eigenmann, indicted at the September, 1913, term of the circuit court on the charge of obtaining money under false pretenses here. The officers, with Mr. Eigenmann, arrived here at 5 o'clock from Waterloo and at 10 o'clock the defendant departed from the city, after furnishing a bond of $1,000 from the Massachusetts Surety and Insurance company to insure his presence here at the September term term of the circuit court.

Sheriff Stewart's trip to Iowa yesterday was his third, his previous visits there being unsuccessful, the hearing before the governor being continued each time, at the request of the defendant, who was represented by the law firm of Byers & Hutchinson, the first named being a former attorney general of that state. R. R. Tiffany represents Eigenmann here.

Eigenmann and his attorneys attended the hearing yesterday morning at 8:30 o'clock before the governor, which was merely a hearing in which the state executive was

BAILEY RECEIVED AN OFFER FROM DUBUQUE

SECRETARY OF DIXON Y. M. C. A. ASKED TO ACCEPT MUCH BETTER POSITION.

BUT WILL REMAIN IN DIXON

Local Board Asks Him to Stay Here Until His Plans Have Been Consummated.

Despite the fact that last week he received a most tempting offer to accept the general secretaryship of the Dubuque, Iowa, Y. M. C. A., Secy. E. T. Bailey of the Dixon association has decided to remain in Dixon until certain work which has been started under his administration is completed. The offer from the Dubuque association was of such generous terms that it commanded consideration and accordingly Mr. Bailey took it before the board of directors.

He assured the directors that if they felt he had not outworn his power for accomplishment here he would be glad to remain until certain policies which have been undertaken are consummated, and on being reassured by the board that they felt the need of his services here, he decided to remain in Dixon and accordingly refused the Dubuque offer.

Since coming to Dixon Mr. Bailey's record at the local association has been one of accomplishment. All the floating indebtedness has been disposed of, the association work has been broadened and enhanced, and the membership has shown a substantial gain. Inasmuch as this is not the first call Mr. Bailey has refused in order that he may complete his plans for the Dixon association, the directors and members feel very grateful to him for his sacrifices.

LEON SCOTT IN JAIL.

Saturday evening Leon Scott was arrested on charges of disorderly conduct, having been involved in a brawl on Galena avenue.

Scott was confined to the city jail and later taken to the county bastille, where he will be boarded by the city for the next hundred days. Scott was on a probation writ issued January 23, at which time he was fined $50 and the fine suspended pending his good conduct. Now that he has proven himself unworthy of leniency he will be confined in the county jail for the period mentioned until the fine is served out.

YOU ARE INVITED

Thursday the Business Men of Dixon will be hosts to their many friends and patrons of Dixon and the surrounding country at a big picnic, to be held at Lowell Park. The picnic will be free to everybody and every man, woman and child in Lee county is earnestly invited to be the guest of the Dixon merchants on that day. All will be made to feel most welcome.

For the past month committees have been working on the plans for this big free holiday. An immense fund has been raised and a complete program providing entertainment for the whole day and evening has been prepared; and it won't cost you one red cent.

DON'T COME TO SHOP

You won't be able to buy a thing in the merchandise line in Dixon on Thursday, so don't come to shop, for the stores will all be closed. The merchants will all be at Lowell Park helping to entertain YOU.

The reason? Well, just like this: The people of Dixon and around Dixon have been especially liberal with their patronage of the Dixon business men and they have spent a lot of money with the local commercial interests. The business men appreciate it, and they want to show their appreciation by this day's entertainment.

Bring your basket if you want to eat dinner on the grounds at noon. The business men will furnish coffee, cream and sugar; and the program of the day's events is a full one.

And the best part of it is that it won't cost you a penny.

NOW WILL YOU COME?

MADAME CAILLAUX PLACED ON TRIAL AT NOON TODAY IN PARIS

MUST FACE JURY FOR MURDER OF EDITOR CALMETTE ON MARCH 16, LAST.

(Associated Press) Paris, July 20.—The trial of Madame Joseph Caillaux for the murder of M. Gaston Calmette, editor of the Figaro on March 16, last, began in the Palais de Justice at noon today. The prison had been transferred from St. Labare prison to the prison attached to the law courts, and as soon as the jurors had taken their places the republican guards opened a small door in the wall and escorted the woman before the tribunal. Threats that Royalist hot-heads were planning to create a disturbance during the trial caused the government to take extra precautions.

The report that the defense intends to raise the question as to whether or not M. Calmette's death was due to lack of proper treatment after the shooting because of the failure of the surgeons to operate promptly is confirmed by the fact that a number of doctors have been summoned to testify. The surgeons who have been cited by the counsel for Mme. Caillaux are Prof. Pozzi, of the Academy of Medicine; Dr. Robert Froust, Dr. Fraiso, Dr. Doyen and Dr. Victor Balthazard.

The jury before which Mme. Caillaux is to be tried appears to have shown itself to be indulgent in cases which it has already heard. In three cases it has granted the plea of extenuating circumstances to the widest degree. In two other cases it has requested the application of gauris, or suspended sentence, which the judge granted, although the assize court is not generally inclined to grant the benefit of the first offenders act.

Three judges will hear the case Judge Albaladejo will preside with Judge Katz and Dagoury as assistants on either side of him.

WANTS CHILDREN DECLARED DEPENDANT

ALLEGED DESERTION OF CHRIS NELSON LEAVES HIS FAMILY WITHOUT SUPPORT.

Humane Officer W. G. Kent this afternoon applied to County Judge Scott asking that William, Marie, Clarence, Gladys, Hazel Henry and Helen Nelson, the children of Chris Nelson, be declared dependant. The children are said to have been deserted some time ago by their father, for whom a warrant charging wife abandonment, is now in the hands of the officers, and their mother is unable to support them.

ED KEENAN HELD UP AND BEATEN ON WAY HOME SATURDAY EVE.

ASSAULT TOOK PLACE NEAR WOODRIBBEN LOT ON RIVER STREET.

WAS BEATEN ABOUT THE HEAD

Many Stitches Were Required to Close Scalp Wounds—The Evidence of Assaultants.

Ed Keenan, a driver in the employ of George Marshall, the ice man, was held up, beaten and robbed by two men while returning to his home on E. River street at about 10:30 o'clock Saturday night, and because he was assaulted from the rear he was unable to recognize his assailants. The police have been at work on the hold-up, but have been unable to learn of any evidence that may lead to the apprehension of the guilty ones.

A Second Attempt.

The discovery that Ed Keenan had been badly assaulted was made through a second attempted hold-up at the same place—the vacant lot across the street from Espy's dock and bathhouse—which resulted in the officers being called.

Shortly after 11 o'clock while Hugh Finnegan and Jay Keenan, the latter a brother of Ed, were returning to their homes on E. River street, a man stuck a revolver through the weeds at them as the walked past the lot and commanded them to throw up their hands, and then to lay their money on the walk.

Thought It a Joke.

They thought the "hold-up" was a joke being perpetrated by some of their friends, and one of them answered that they would come back in the morning and comply with the request, with which reply they continued on their way.

They had not proceeded far, however, before the holdup fired at them, and then, realizing that there was a real robber in the weeds and that he meant business, they ran to the artificial ice plant office several hundred feet east, where they telephoned for the police.

Found Keenan Injured.

Officer Winters, in response to the call, hurried to the scene of the attempted hold-up, and while search-

MISSING "DRY" LECTURER IS FOUND AND IDENTIFIED--IN CONSTANT FEAR OF DEATH

(Associated Press.)

Milwaukee, Wis., July 20.—Rev. Louis Patmont, the "dry" lecturer, whom it is alleged was kidnapped from Westville, Ill., and who mysteriously disappeared from Detroit, Mich., on June 15 has been located and identified at Rib Lake, Wis., by Rev. C. L. Millon and Gordon Knapp.

Rev. Patmont says that a stranger warned him to leave Detroit under pain of death and that since then he has wandered over the country, suffering great mental agony.

According to Knapp, Patmont told a rambling story and at times appeared in a state of coma. His nerves are badly shattered as a result of his constant fear that some one has been following him threatening his life.

Patmont and Milton left Rib Lake late last night, refusing to divulge their destination.

ESCAPED FROM STATE SCHOOL AT GENEVA IN A BOX CAR LAST NIGHT.

Margaret Sanderson of Chicago and Jessie Pence of Kewanee, two girls who had been sent to the state school for girls at Geneva, escaped from that institution Sunday night, but they were apprehended here this morning and were returned to the institution this afternoon. The two girls who are 16 and 17 years of age, got out of Geneva on a west bound North western freight train, stealing a ride in a box car. They dropped off the train in the west end of the Dixon yards, and were seen by railroad officials, who suspected that they were fugitives from the state school and notified the sheriff's office. According to the two were soon taken into custody and the officials of the school were notified with the result that an officer arrived here this noon and returned with them at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

Elmer Rice and Miss Clara Haas were visitors in Clinton yesterday.

DR. WINTER DISCREDITS STORY THAT BODY OF HIS DAUGHTER HAS BEEN FOUND

BULLETIN.

(Associated Press.)

Chicago, July 20.—The supposed solution of the mysterious disappearance of Catherine Winters of New Castle, Ind., apparently failed today when the body exhumed in the potters' field at Urbana yesterday was identified by Nicholas Larry as his two-year-old daughter, who died in Jacksonville, Fla. Undertaker Stewart said Larry has placed the child in the vault where it has rested for one year, after which it was buried in the potters' field because no one claimed it.

Chicago, July 20.—"I don't think she is my little girl" asserted Dr. William Winters of New Castle Ind., the father of the missing nine-year-old daughter, Catherine Winters, whose body was reported to have been recovered from a potters' field at Champaign, Ill.

The conversation was over the telephone and he added "My little girl had brown hair while the child whose body has been exhumed has light blonde hair. I have been treated so badly by tin star detectives that I have little faith in their discoveries."

The body, believed to be that of Catherine, was exhumed yesterday at Urbana. According to the reports the exhumation was caused by detectives of an agency with national reputation. Every detail is reported to tally with that of Catherine's body, and also the clothing.

According to the reports of the finding of the body it had lain thirteen months in the receiving vault of the cemetery and then being unclaimed it was buried. The private detective told Sheriff Davis that the body had been traced to Florida and thence to Champaign.

Dr. Winters said he would send an officer to Champaign and make sure whether or not the body is that of his little daughter.

THE CLOSING DAY OF FRANKLIN GROVE MEETINGS WAS A BIG SUCCESS.

One of the most successful sessions in the history of the Franklin Grove camp meeting came to a close Sunday, when the largest crowd that has ever gathered at the camp meeting grounds assembled to take part in the closing meetings. The officials of the association are more than pleased with the success that has attended the meetings this year, and they are to be congratulated upon the strength of the program which they prepared.

IS MUCH BETTER.

The condition of Mrs. J. W. Rice was reported to be very much improved today.

FIRST WATER GAME RESULTED IN A TIE

NEITHER TEAM COULD "CROSS PLATE" AT ASSEMBLY BEACH SATURDAY AFTERNOON.

Saturday afternoon at the Assembly Beach "diamond" the Assembly Beach water baseball nine and a picked team tied for the honors in a four-inning contest. Every stage of the game was featured by good water ball playing and although this was the first contest of the year and several of the players were not up to form, there were no bad errors of any sort.

Later in the season with better drilled and regular teams, some interesting games are to be looked for.

The following was the line-up used in Saturday's tie:
Assembly Beach—Kelly, c; Schuler, p; Tippet, 1b; Donahue, 2b; Rosbrook, 3b.
Elmer's Colts—Lord, c; Poole, p; Donahue, 1b; Julien, 2b; Gillick, 3b.

Two-base hits—Rosbrook. Errors—Julien, 1.

BIG LEAGUE LEADERS RETAIN THEIR LEADS

NEITHER GIANTS NOR ATHLETICS LOST ANY GROUND DURING PAST WEEK.

ATHLETICS GAINED FULL GAME

White Sox Won Only Two of Seven Games—Chance's Team Took Big Brace.

New York, July 20.—Neither of the major league baseball races tightened appreciably during the past week. On the contrary, the beginning of the new playing period found the situation in each circuit less tense and with fewer probable chances of notable changes in the immediate future than seemed the case a week ago. If New York in the National and Philadelphia in the American league are not to repeat their pennant winning performances, the clubs behind them will have to show more consistent winning power than any of them displayed in the last seven days.

In the Ban Johnson circuit the Athletics gained a full game on Detroit, the club next in ranking, the Tigers now being three and a half games behind the leaders. Washington took a far worse tumble, dropping back to a point five games removed from the front. Boston, despite an excellent showing on the week's play, is five and a half games from the top, half a game worse off than last Sunday.

It remained, however, for Chicago to come the worst cropper. The White Sox won only two of seven games played and are more than six games behind the pacemakers. St. Louis fell off slightly, the club's standing now being just a trifle over the .500 mark. Thus it will be seen that the first six clubs are not nearly so closely bunched as they were a week back.

The Athletics seem to have awakened at last and to be playing their old steady, smashing game. Forced into idleness the greater part of the week because of wet weather in Philadelphia, they bounced into the White Sox when the latter moved to Quakertown and scattered them right and left. The Mackmen won all three games played with the Sox by decisive scores and closed their week's work with a record of three games won and none lost.

The drop of the White Sox came with the greater shock to their supporters because of the added winning power expected to prove theirs through the "come back" of Ed Walsh. Accidents which have weakened their line-up temporarily will account for much of their poorer work, and Callahan and his men have by no means given up hope.

Accident also has hit Washington hard, although it appears Milan's disableness will not be for so long a period as was feared. Then, too, the Nations are no longer able to count a game virtually won the moment Walter Johnson steps into the box, as was shown again last week. Thus their effort to work upward is proving difficult.

Boston showed the most consistent work of any of the American league's leading sextette, passing both Chicago and St. Louis and moving up to fourth place. St. Louis, like Chicago, found the going hard in New York, where the Chance men have taken a big brace. The Brown dropped there the only two games they played during the week. The Cleveland found themselves long enough to take two out of three from Washington, but seem to have little chance of escaping from last place if the Yankees keep up anything like their present pace. Chance's players strengthened by the addition of Outfielder Cree and First Baseman Mullen, have won eight of their last eleven games.

The National league feature of the week was the 21inning game between New York and Pittsburgh. This notable duel between Marquard and Adams, won by the former in pitching 20 innings of scoreless ball, will be handed down as one of the historic contests of the game. It was fortunate for the Giants that they outlasted the Pirates in this struggle, for Chicago won the same day.

The Cubs fared slightly better than the Giants on the week's work losing one game less, which marks the extent of their gain on the leaders. By beating the Brooklyn today the Cubs gained a few percentage points and moved that much nearer the Giants.

Going down the National league line, little developed to cause excitement. St. Louis kept pace with New York in games won and lost, but is not close enough to threaten in the near future. The Cincinnati, "crippled" by desertions, are having a struggle to keep with in hailing distance of the .500 point and find the Philadelphia now challenging them for a first division place. Brooklyn, Pittsburgh and Boston are fairly close together in the three remaining places, with Boston doing the best work of any of the trio.

The record in each league of games played, won and lost, with runs, hits, errors and men left on bases, follows:

New York	7	4	3	34	62	12	47
Chicago	6	4	2	26	46	14	45

County Treasurer Frank C. Vaughn was in our village from Dixon on Friday forenoon, visiting with his many friends.

The lightning during the storm of Thursday afternoon struck the barn on the Burkhardt farm occupied by John Mahaffey and burned it to the ground, together with all its contents. Luckily the horses had been all turned out in the pasture before the family went to help neighbors make hay that morning and this saved them from being lost also. Mr. Mahaffey had just finished making his hay and the mow, filled to the brim, was all burned.

George Kessler was visiting with relatives and friends in Mendota on Wednesday.

Laurent Gehant was in town transacting business on Thursday.

The first breakdown in the Farmers' Elevator well being used by the city occurred on Friday evening, when the rods near the top of the well came apart. The trouble was not difficult to adjust, but just the same we were for some time without water. This little well has been doing remarkable work for the people of this village and they owe unlimited gratitude to the directors of the elevators and its stockholders as well for the privilege of using this well for the past several months.

The band boys went to Waterman on Thursday and furnished music for the Chautauqua boosting expedition from that town throughout DeKalb county. The trip measured 114 miles and was divided as follows: First 15 minutes in dust; next two hours in a heavy wind and rain storm; next two hours in mud; about a half hour in pulling some of the cars out of the ditches, and the balance on firm earth at Waterman in the park entertaining the home people with a concert lasting until 8:30 p. m. It was a trip filled with incidents of every sort, but the boys made good, as they always do, and were cheered to the limit by their audiences everywhere. Somehow their music was filled with enthusiasm to overcome a part of that lost by the Boosters' club over the rain storm and they more than pleased everybody everywhere. A high tribute accorded the boys while at Shabbona on the last lap of the journey was as follows: "Nothing is too good for you people of Shabbona and us of Waterman. We are entitled to the best and want the very best. We have secured the very best throughout our Chautauqua for every day and invite you to enjoy it with us. Again I say nothing is too good for the people of this vicinity. We are entitled to the best and that is the reason we have engaged the best band in the country to assist us today." Such extracts from the chairman of the day boosting in every town certainly demonstrates beyond every doubt how pleased the people were over the playing of the West Brooklyn Cornet band. It is estimated that a thousand people were gathered to hear the concert by the band, which had been thoroughly advertised for the past several days throughout that community.

SALTS IS FINE FOR KIDNEYS, QUIT MEAT

Flush the Kidneys at once when Back hurts or Bladder bothers—Meat forms uric acid.

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which clogs the kidney pores so they sluggishly filter or strain only part of the waste and poisons from the blood, then you get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, constipation, dizziness, sleeplessness, bladder disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any reliable pharmacy and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.

Rev. D. N. Scott of the First Presbyterian church of Rochelle, using the beautiful ring service, united the happy couple, while the audience cheered again and again, but as an encore in this case was not possible, the curtain did not rise again. EIGHT THOUSAND ATTENDED WEDDING

CEREMONIES ATTENDING MAR-RIAGE CONTINUED FOR EIGHT DAYS.

(Associated Press.)
Vienna, July 18.—A wedding whose guests numbered over 8,000 persons and whose feasting continued for eight days was celebrated recently at Sadagora in Bukowina, one of those remote country districts of Austria-Hungary, where mammoth wedding festivities on a scale utterly unknown in America or Western Europe are the rule.

The affair at Sadagora exceeded in magnificence and lavish hospitality any function on record in that district, however. It was a Hebrew wedding. Sadagora enjoys a certain fame in Eastern Europe as the seat of the renowned Rabbinical dynasty known as the Mirado Rabbis. The bride was the daughter of the grand rabbi of this line, Aron Friedman, and the groom, Solomon, belongs to a branch of the same Rabbinical dynasty at Czortkow. The marriage was arranged by the chiefs of the two families, entirely without the knowledge of the young people. In fact, they met for the first time only the evening before the wedding at a preliminary feast, when they danced together as a sign of their willingness to marry.

The chiefs had taken it for granted that there would be no hitch in their plans, and had invited the Rabbinical families of all the Orthodox Jews in Russia, Poland, Roumania, Galicia and Hungary. They came down on Sadagora in thousands. Many were of imposing stature and patriarchal dignity. They wore black silk caftans, low shoes and white stockings, while their ladies were attired in a sort of crinoline and adorned with rich jewels. There were some dressed in the latest modes of Paris and Vienna.

The ceremony took place in the gardens of the Grand Rabbi's palace, guarded by mounted troops. Thousands were unable to hear or see what was going on, so dense was the throng, but all had a hand in the feasting which followed. During the eight days the commissary's books accounted for 200 pounds of fish, 500 head of poultry, 250 pounds of beef, 5,000 pounds of bread and many casks of wine. The Grand Rabbi was out of pocket to the extent of at least $40,000.

In addition to this he presented the bride couple with a palace at Sadagora, completely furnished and equipped with a staff of servants. He will meet the entire cost of the household for a period of six years, when it is assumed that the young bridegroom will have attained a position where he can support his family himself.

MOULDS FATAL TO POULTRY

One Great Cause of Large Number of Deaths Among Poultry, and Particularly Among Chicks.

(By H. L. KEMPSTER, Missouri Experiment Station.)
Mouldy litter in poultry houses and mouldy feed are the cause of a large number of deaths among poultry and particularly among chicks. These moulds taken into the body of the fowl cause a disease known as Aspergillosis. The disease is as fatal as the name sounds. Our scientists have neglected to find a shorter name for the disease, but among poultrymen chicks affected with the trouble are commonly spoken of as "lungers."

Many times the disease is mistaken for white diarrhoea. The Missouri college of agriculture, in its investigation of poultry diseases, notes the following characteristic symptoms: The chicks stand around in a drowsy manner and shows little desire to eat. The wings hang down, the breath is rapid and a white diarrhoea is present.

An affected chick will be found to have soft, yellow growths from the size of a pinhead to that of a pea, mainly in the lungs, but sometimes in the intestines and mesentery. These growths, clogging the air passages of the lungs, are directly responsible for the death of affected birds.

In mature fowls there are two forms of the disease. The mucous membrane lining the air-sacs and tubes may be covered with a membranous formation which is soft and yellowish and has an offensive odor, or the post mortem will reveal white or yellowish nodules imbedded in the tissues of the lungs.

Early symptoms are that the bird is inactive, sleepy and if forced to run, will fall from exhaustion; breathing is rapid, appetite is diminished and more or less catarrh is present.

There is no cure for the trouble, but since it is caused by eating mouldy feed or by being permitted access to mouldy litter, it can be entirely prevented by not compelling fowls to eat mouldy food and by keeping them away from mouldy litter.

This is just one of the many poultry troubles that can be entirely avoided by feeding nothing but fresh, clean feed and keeping the pens and yards free from filth and moulds.

MUCH PLANT FOOD IN SEEDS

Interesting Experiment May Be Had by Planting Beans and Watching Development of Plants.

Much of the food of very young plants comes from the seeds to which they are attached. To prove this, plant two beans in a tin can containing sandy soil; water and keep in a warm, light place. Soon after the beans push above ground take a sharp-pointed knife and carefully cut off the two half beans without injuring the rest of the plant. Allow the plants to grow for a week or two and note the more rapid development of the plant to which the half beans are attached.

The illustration shows beans planted in rich black earth on the same day. Both plants came up on the same day. The half beans were then removed from one. The other, it will be seen, grew faster because the half beans furnished food.

TIME FOR CUTTING CLOVER

With Good Weather Hay Should Be Left in the Windrow Over Night and Turned the Next Day.

Clover for hay should be cut as soon as the first blossoms begin to turn brown, and the hay should be cured in the shade. After the clover has been cut, it should be turned with a tedder as soon as the leaves in the upper part of the swath are well wilted. Before the leaves and stems become dry and stiff, the hay should be raked into windrows. This will shade most of the hay and allow a good circulation of air through it. Clover cured in the windrow does not get stiff like that exposed to the sun in the swath for a day or two. With good weather the hay should be left in the windrow over night and turned a time or two the next forenoon. It should then be ready for the stack the second afternoon. Cured in this way the stems are soft and pliable and much natural moisture is retained in the leaves.

Powdery Mildew.
Powdery mildew is likely to be very bad on young cherry trees, particularly those growing in the nursery row. Such trees should be sprayed three or four times with bordeaux mixture 2-3-50 or either of the lime-sulphurs.

Encourance.
Whether it may seem paradoxical or not, it is a fact in our nature that without endurance, life ceases to be enjoyable; with out pains accepted, pleasure will not be permanent. A life from which everything that has in it the element of pain is banished, becomes a life not worth having or worse, of intolerable tedium and disgust.—James Hinton.

Electrifying Celluloid.

IF THE JAPS SHOULD COME.

Profrio Diaz, former president of Mexico, made the following statement in a letter recently given out by General Huerta:

"I commend most highly your action in refusing to countenance any thought of dealing with the Japanese. Jesus will bless your cause for refusing to think, even upon friendly advice, of asking either the moral or material aid of these over-sea pigmies. Their entry at all, at any time, or for any purpose into the affairs of Mexico, would mean the arousal of the United States to a fury of conquest and hate that could have but one terrible result—the complete undoing of our beloved country as one of the nations of the earth. And this after our people had been slaughtered, their finances ruined beyond repair and the complete Americanization of the entire continent encompassed."

Not exactly that. The United States would be actuated, not by hate, but by the necessity of protecting her own interests. The interests of this country forbid the Japanization of any part of the American continent, either in the United States or out of it. Diaz is right in saying that if Mexico wants an American conquest, the way to get it is to offer a foothold to Asiatic races on this hemisphere.

It has been abundantly proved that widely differing races cannot live happily together, nor adjacent to each other. When there is a minor degree of difference, such as between an Anglo-Saxon and a Lithuanian, or an Irishman and an Italian, lines of distinction tend to become broken down. But when the difference is greater, as between the white and yellow races, amalgamation is difficult and undesirable, and propinquity results in serious economic disturbances.

The white man and the yellow man can be good friends, feeling no enmity whatever, if they do not associate too closely. The oceans and mountains which have formed a natural barrier, and which led to the striking demarcations in racial development, may well be reserved as the natural boundary of the different types of man.

Friendly social and commercial intercourse, but no territorial encroachment, is a sufficient blend of altruism and the instinct of self-preservation.

The fact that Porfirio Diaz was wrong in his understanding of the situation, and that it was the Japs who refused to deal with Huerta, does not alter the soundness of his conclusions.—Exchange.

IS NINETY DAYS ENOUGH?

John W. Cook, head of the Illinois Normal School at DeKalb, presents a picture of the "schooling" of the average American child in a way that seems worthy of some sober thought.—Chicago Herald.

In an address before the National Education Association at St. Paul the other day Dr. Cook took some familiar statistics and showed what they really mean to a nation which relies on the intelligence of the masses for its progress and preservation.

There are enrolled annually in the common schools of the United States about 18,000,000 pupils, in charge of about 500,000 teachers, at a cost of $50,000,000 a year.

But this enrollment is only about half the population between the ages of 5 and 18, and one-quarter of those enrolled are absent every day. What do these figures mean? Hear Dr. Cook:

This means that we are relying on about NINETY DAYS of schooling annually for the preparation of a superior citizenship.

And we must have a superior citizenship. For here the people rule, and the righteousness and efficiency of the ruling ultimately depend on their mental and moral intelligence.

It is not forgotten here, and Dr. Cook did not forget, the educated leadership provided in the better schooled.

Neither can we forget the theory of the nature and destiny of man on which our Republic is founded—the theory of the equal right of all citizens to a voice in the business of government and the pledges and guarantees we have given that that right shall be maintained.

Many have succeeded in life, and in more than material ways, with less schooling. Can we rely on an average citizenship of meagerly schooled. Is ninety days enough?

BOATS SHOULD CARRY LIGHTS.

There are motor boats on the river that are not carrying lights according to the laws of the state of Illinois and many of the boats do not carry lights at all. This practice is mighty dangerous and may result in a tragedy some night that will wake boat owners up to conditions, but too late.

With the hundreds of canoes and row boats that frequent the river in the evening, there is a good chance that one or more of them will be run down and the occupants drowned. Some of the power driven boats go at a high rate of speed, and without a searchlight it is impossible on a dark night to see what is in their path. Even with the regulation side lights they can only trust the operators of the small boats to keep out of their way and there are times when this is impossible. Every launch should be compelled to carry the regular colored side lights and a search light as well and if people who go out in canoes and row boats would be safe, they should carry some sort of a light themselves to warn the helmsmen of the approaching speedboats of their location.

The boating association, if it is still in active life, should see to it that every member of the boating fraternity takes all legal precautions, and if the lights, signals, etc., are not installed on all boats, the city or county authorities should take it upon themselves to call in a state inspector and have him use whatever means he finds necessary to have the omissions corrected.

It surely amounts to criminal carelessness to fail to take all reasonable precautions against collisions. Don't let us wait until we have an accident that will cost a life or two.

Wheat

BY WALT MASON

On breezy western prairie, on fertile northern plain, the wheat is reaped, and nary a farmer should complain. We have kind nature's bounty, for which we long did yearn, and every blooming county has stacks of wheat to burn. There's wheat in car and wagon, there's wheat in barn and shed; and everyone is bragging—if not, he should be dead. There's wheat in bins and barrels, there's wheat in stacks, afield; is there a gent who quarrels with such a noble yield? The farmer's joyous slogans should perforate the air, for wheat is in his brogans, and wheat is in his hair; and wheat is all around him—each sackful means a cad; and yet, alas, confound him, the husbandman seems sad! "The weather isn't proper for castor beans," he wails, "and I shall be a pauper if autumn rhubarb fails! I lost my finest rooster a day or two ago; I cannot be a booster—misfortune dogs me so!" The Lord hands down a blessing, and when it comes to us, we make a face distressing, and shed some brine and cuss.

Forenoon Drills.

The orders provide that all officers must attend reveille and immediately after reveille roll call all company officers must assemble at a designated point to receive practical instruction in bayonet exercises. The various drills will be on important tactics and the afternoons will all be given over to instruction for the officers, during which the privates who are not on other duty will be allowed target practice.

The afternoons will ordinary be devoted to tactical talks by officers, the subjects to be taken up in the following order: Officers' patrol, advance guard, attack of a position, occupation and preparation of a defensive position, delaying action.

Parades.

Only one of the parades will be regimental, the others being by battalions. Another new feature is the abolition of guard mount, the orders providing that guard duty shall be limited to that necessary for the security of property, and will not be made the subject of special instruction. It will be by regimental guards in such strength as the camp commander directs and guards will be relieved without the formality of a guard mount and at such times and in such manner as may be directed.

Held Last Twilight Service Sunday Eve.

UNION OPEN AIR WORSHIP AT JOHN DIXON PARK WAS WELL ATTENDED.

The series of three community twilight services that have been held in the John Dixon park came to a successful close last night. The attendance and interest in the meetings increased from the very beginning and indicates that such a service should be conducted by the churches again next year.

Mrs. Katherine Ballou sang a beautiful and impressive solo th was in complete harmony with the spirit of the evening. Rev. S. E. Fisher spoke from the subject, "Victory Through Defeat," emphasizing the important fact that we should bury ourselves in our lives' work if we would win out in them. That the farmer sowing the grain is conducting a funeral service, but the grains of wheat spring into new life. That the overcoming live and the victorious life is buried deep in noble tasks, suffering and dying it may be, in order to rise again.

Rev. E. O. Bradshaw followed in another brief sermon, emphasizing the same idea as it related to the Prodigal Son who found himself buried deep in misery and misfortune after he had squandered both character and substance in riotous living. That it was the God-like love of a Perfect Father that caused him to come to himself and 'arise and go to his father.' The son ceased to love the father, but the father never ceased to love the son. Others may cease to love us, but we should never cease to love them. We may cease to love God, but He never ceases to love us. God-like love over us and in us will save the world to righteousness.

Washington, July 20.—Approximately 2,026,000,000 native field birds, exclusive of sparrows, inhabit the United States east of the great plains states, according to partial returns announced today of the first bird census in the history of the government now being made by the department of agriculture.

Apparently the most numerous of these birds is the robin, of which, it is estimated, there are 100,000,000 east of the Mississippi river.

MANGE AND LICE TREATMENT

Variety of Coal-Tar Dips on Market Are Satisfactory If of Sufficient Strength and Warm.

(By M. H. REYNOLDS, Veterinarian, Minnesota Experiment Station.) Treatment of hogs for mange should begin with a vigorous scrubbing with brush, soap, and soft water so as to remove the crust. A variety of coal-tar dips are on the market. Most of these are quite satisfactory if of sufficient strength, and warm enough (about 110 degrees F. Do not boil). The hog should be given a good thorough soaking in the dip, not less than two minutes. The hog must go under, head and all, at least once. Treatment must usually be repeated one or more times at intervals of eight days. Treat the whole herd and do it thoroughly.

An effective dip can be made from crude petroleum as follows: 4 gallons crude oil, 16 gallons water, 1 pound soap.

The soap should be dissolved in the water by heating. An emulsion is then made by adding the oil and thoroughly churning the mixture. Water in different sections differs very greatly in the way it will combine with soap. If the amount of soap does not give a good emulsion simply add more soap. Avoid oily dips in cold weather.

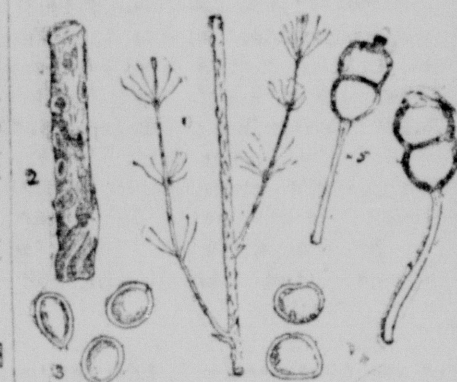

While the hogs are taking the dip, thoroughly clean and then disinfect the pens. In case of true mange the fence posts, trees, and everything against which the hogs can rub must also be disinfected. Use a strong disinfectant and plenty of it. After treatment do not put hogs back into lousy or mangy pens.

DISEASE OF THE ASPARAGUS

Rust Is Common and Familiar to Every Grower of Vegetable—Can Be Controlled by Spraying.

(By C. J. BETHUNE.)

Asparagus rust is a very common disease and is familiar to every grower of this vegetable. It has three distinct stages. The first is known as the "cluster-cup" stage or the spring form. In this stage the spores are produced in cup-shaped pustules, which are grouped in oval clusters and are orange yellow when mature. This stage is seldom noticed by asparagus growers.

In Center, Stem Shows Spore Clusters: No. 2, Cluster-Cup Form; No. 3, Spores From Cluster-Cup; No. 4, Summer Stage Spores; No. 5, Rusting or Winter Spores.

The second or summer stage is the one usually first noticed by the growers, and called by them "red-rust" on account of the elongated reddish-brown pustules which are seen breaking through the skin of the stem. In these pustules reddish, one-celled spores are produced, known as uredospores. It is the summer or "red-rust" stage that the disease spreads most rapidly and appears to do the greatest amount of harm.

Towards fall, or whenever the vitality of the asparagus plants is reduced, the third and final stage, known as the "black rust" or winter stage appears, due to the fact that the red spores in the pustules are replaced by dark-brown, two-celled, thick-walled spores. These germinate in the spring and produce the first stage again.

Rust may be largely controlled by spraying with resin-bordeaux from July to September, at intervals of ten days or two weeks. This is a difficult and rather costly undertaking and will hardly pay except on large areas. Dusting with flowers of sulphur has given good results. Cutting and burning all the diseased stems will help to keep the rust in check. Rust-resistant varieties should be planted.

TESTS IN GROWING APPLES

Department of Pomology of New York State Leases Orchard for Studying Methods of Renewal.

At Port Byron, N. Y., the department of pomology of New York state, has leased an orchard consisting of eight acres planted with Baldwin and Rhode Island Greening apples, which will be used for studying methods of renewal.

The trees, which were originally too close, have now grown together so that the branches interlock. In one part of the orchard every alternate tree will be taken out, and in other parts the trees will be severely headed in or thinned.

The problem presented is a common one, many orchards in New York state being in a similar condition. Different methods of renewal that are recommended will be tested.

The fruit obtained will be used for testing the various fruit graders on the market.

DRAWS $12,690 FOR MONTH IN CONGRESS

Besides Hoxworth's Daughter Acts as His Secretary.

Rapatee, Ill., July 20.—Congressman Stephen A. Hoxworth of the Galesburg-Quincy-Canton congressional district—the Fifteenth—is the solitary member of the Illinois delegation at Washington who is not a candidate for re-nomination.

He also holds the record for the highest total of absenteeism of any Illinois member during the present congress, and is a close contender for the record on the heaviest per diem drawn from the federal treasury.

Congressman Hoxworth, who is the Democrat who retired former Representative George W. Pringle to private life via the 1912 landslide, served five weeks in Washington. He has drawn $12,690. He has been away on sick leave, several times extended through the good offices of Speaker Clark and of Congressman at Large Williams.

The congressman has been in ill health since 1913. He ate some ice cream at Galesburg after his trunk had been packed for Washington, and his condition has been such that he has been unable to report at the national capital since.

His daughter acts as his secretary.

MOHENO BITTER AGAINST BRYAN

Huerta's Secretary Also Says Villa Is Impossible.

NEVER COULD BE PRESIDENT

In Interview Former Mexican Foreign Minister Says Mexico's Troubles Are Just Beginning—He Declares Bryan Has Two Sides—Describes Him as Clown in Circus.

New York, July 20.—The plan ascribed to Pancho Villa of having himself elected constitutional president of Mexico after General Carranza has served a short time as provisional president is scouted as impossible of fulfillment by Querido Moheno, Huerta's secretary of foreign affairs.

"Villa as president is impossible," Senor Moheno said. "The people of Mexico would never permit it. A man to be president must have some support. Villa is a bandit. As a fighter he can get a following, but not as president of Mexico. He would not even attempt such a thing."

The general substance of Senor Moheno's talk with interviewers is that trouble in Mexico is just beginning; that the resignation of General Huerta is only the end of the first stage of the present chaos in the country. Senor Moheno believes that General Huerta himself will return to Mexico before a great while and will take part in the revolutionary movement which already has started in some five different localities against the constitutionalists. Senor Moheno does not consider it likely that ex-President Huerta will visit New York or any part of the United States.

Senor Moheno went on to tell what he said was the view of Mexican people regarding the attitude of the United States toward the republic to the south.

Bryan Disappointment.
"Bryan was a great disappointment to us," he said. "You remember he came to Mexico some eight years ago. At that time he talked much about Pan-American friendship. He ate Mexican food; bought and wore a suit of Mexican clothes while he was with us; tasted—just took a sip—of Mexican drinks. While in Mexico Mr. Bryan was a Mexican."

"We hoped that Mr. Bryan would be nominated by the Democrats and that he would be elected, or after his visit to us we were sure that he was our friend and would be fair to us. Then President Wilson was nominated with Mr. Bryan's support. We knew of Mr. Wilson through his book on government. When Mr. Bryan was chosen by Mr. Wilson as secretary of state we said: 'Now we have a friend in Washington.'"

"But Mr. Bryan, as we see him now, has two sides. He is a Mexican—is one of us, and we are a great people, when he is with us. When he is in Washington we are merely a lot of Indians. The feeling toward Mr. Bryan in Mexico has changed in the past months. The Mexican people now call him—wait until I get the English words—a clown in a country circus."

Federal General Assassinated.
San Diego, Cal., July 20.—Wireless dispatches from the American ships at La Paz tell of the receipt of word that General Myer, federal governor of Guadaluajara, has been assassinated. General Myer had been noticeable for the friendly spirit which he had shown to Americans.

FOREIGN COMMERCE HEAVY

Aggregate for Fiscal Year Comes to $4,258,795,735.

Washington, July 20.—Foreign commerce of the United States during the fiscal year, which ended June 30, aggregated $4,258,795,735, being $20,096,649, or less than one-half of 1 per cent, below the high record of 1913 and $401,208,292 above the highest record in any earlier year.

Imports, according to preliminary figures by the bureau of foreign and domestic commerce, aggregated $1,894,169,180, an increase of $81,160,946, or 4.47 per cent over last year; and domestic exports aggregated $2,329,731,886, a decrease of $98,774,472, or 4.07 per cent. Foreign goods re-exported were valued at $34,894,669, or $2,483,122 less than those of 1913.

JUDGE DIES IN COURTROOM

Charles Whitney Succumbs While Talking With Client.

Waukegan, Ill., July 20.—Charles Whitney, circuit judge of the district comprising Lake, Boone, McHenry and Winnebago counties, and a member of the appellate court of the northern district, dropped dead in his chair in the court house chambers. He was consulting with a client who had called on him just a few minutes previously. His death was due to heart failure.

Judge Whitney was plainly Lake county's "leading citizen." He was born in the county sixty-five years ago.

A box of Healo would indeed be a great addition to every lady's toilet during the hot summer days. You will find it at Sullivan's drug store.
